

Tee it Up for Education

A community golf tourney fundraiser benefitting

The Event – Sunday, June 4th 2023

Host: Mill Valley Golf Club – a non-profit organization focused on celebrating, playing and preserving the Mill Valley Golf Course. MVGC hosts year-round competitions, meetings, dinners, holiday-inspired events and occasional fundraisers.

Beneficiaries:

Kiddo! – Mill Valley Schools Community Foundation

Kiddo! helps kids reach their full potential by supporting comprehensive arts education programs in vocal and instrumental music, visual art, dance, drama and poetry for nearly 2,400 public elementary and middle school students in Mill Valley. Kiddo! is a non-profit public benefit corporation and serves as the Mill Valley School District's primary fundraising organization. Kiddo! works in partnership with the district to identify and support educational programs that benefit its students.

The Tam High Foundation is a parent-led non-profit fundraising organization that fosters the academic excellence and emotional and physical well-being of all students who attend Tamalpais High School in Mill Valley. In partnership with faculty and staff, the Foundation funds grants that support innovative programs, cutting-edge tools, and equitable educational opportunities to provide every student with a pathway to success. It also fundraises for the Conservatory Theatre Ensemble (CTE,) Patrons of the Arts at Tam High (PATH,) and Tam High United Music Boosters (THUMB.) With community support, our efforts make Tam High both a top academic high school and an extraordinary experience.
